

How do we express our Love for a person to whom we feel closely connected? As each one of us is unique there are many ways of sharing one's Love with a beloved

The same applies to our relationship with our Eternal Parent who designed the universe in such a way that the greatest amount of joy can be experienced by feeling the deepest Love one can imagine and dream of. Ultimately everything is destined to serve the purpose of bringing happiness to each and every human being

The fulfilment of this ideal is only possible when we learn to love ourselves and one another in the right way based on a correct understanding of the meaning of our life

As we are created beings it is natural to look to our Creator and to all of Creation for the proper answers. And if we search with our Heart and see things with the eyes of Love we will soon arrive at our destination and we will know that everything exists for the sake of love

This applies first of all to the heartfelt connection we are to establish with our Ultimate Origin. It is a relationship of Love, of a precious sharing from the Heart

Once we understand this fact deep in our soul we will no longer emphasize 'my religion' or my spiritual path but we will strive more than anything else to build bridges among the various kinds of belief systems which are still separating people

A profound understanding of the centrality of Love allows us to go beyond any kinds of barriers that separate us from others. We will naturally strive for mutual understanding and emphasize what we have in common with people of other faith traditions

All people of good conscience will naturally come together and share from the Heart once they realize that the ultimate purpose of spiritual and religious paths is to learn to love on deeper levels

Just as you will not focus on adoring and worshipping your beloved but on bringing joy to the one who is most dear to your Heart, it must be clear for all people of faith that what our Creator is longing for is not that we offer worship but that we respond to His/Her Love as our Eternal Parent

It is not clever intellectual answers and maybe universal consciousness that will bring us the fulfilment we are longing for deep in our soul but the experience of True Love, both in the relationships we build with our fellow human beings as well as in our personal Heart to Heart connection with our Heavenly Father/Mother, the Ultimate Cause of all existence, or with whatever name we may refer to our Loving Creator

The Divine Love of all proportions – very tender and sensitive as well as strong – is expressed in the beauty of nature, in the mineral, plant and animal world. It is up to each one of us to recognize the endlessly deep dimensions of Love which have been invested into the creation of the universe

For example, can we imagine that our nose has the ability to recognize and remember as many as 50,000 different scents and that our eyes can distinguish between 7 million different colours? Why such a huge amount of scents and such an enormous vast range of colours?

The answer is simple: out of Love for us to be able to enjoy the richest possible realms of experiences, which includes incredible capabilities of the human ear. We have in the middle ear three tiny bones which are actually the only bones in the body that are already fully developed at the time of birth and do not change in size until the end of a person's life in order to secure the stable perfect functioning of this organ which is capable of reaching 20,000 oscillations per second

The more you study the wonders of the human body the stronger you will feel how much Love our God has invested into developing a perfectly functioning body whereby scientists have found out that the DNA of two persons differs in about 5 million points

My deep gratitude goes out to all people of faith for their Love for our Creator. I would like to express my special thankfulness to my Muslim brothers and sisters for their Love for Allah, for their dedication to offer their daily prayer with a sincere desire to establish a loving relationship with The Merciful

Anyone who takes time to consider the names of Allah will come to the surprising realization that He has been given names that express His mercy, Love, and kindness, others that communicate His knowledge and wisdom, those that speak about His greatness and majesty, as well as those that speak about His creative powers and providence

In the Koran we find names for Allah like: the Beneficent, the Merciful, the Forgiving, the Source of Peace, the Bestower, the Provider, the Most Kind, and the Loving. When we regard all of Allah's names together, we see a clear pattern. All of His names refer to benevolence, generosity, mercy, kindness, clemency, and forgiveness. This tells us something very important

It shows us that True Love is the foremost quality that we should focus on in the relationship with our Ultimate Origin. It is this quality that brings us nearest to Him, and it should govern how we conduct ourselves with others in the world

The fact that Allah's names praise Him for His mercy, clemency and kindness, means that these are the qualities that we should remind people of when we encourage them to connect in Heart with our Creator, and these are the qualities we should strive to cultivate in ourselves and our children

If we affirm that the Love of God, Allah, Yahweh, is foremost, we must not be hesitant in likewise becoming ourselves a truly loving being. Our commitment to God's Love means we should focus on a Heart to Heart relationship with Him

Our Love for God needs to transcend any fear we may have of Him and not be devoid of feelings of awe in front of the great Designer of the universe

There are countless ways of expressing our Love in front of our Creator and accordingly we find many different religious traditions. The more we respect each other with the desire to learn from one another the greater will be our personal benefit from sharing with people who represent another spiritual teaching than my own

All of our good and pure feelings are aspects of our relationship with our Heavenly Parent. They complement and reinforce one another. Once we understand this, we will find ourselves open to more goodness than ever before. Our deeds will be better for it, while knowing that God's mercy far surpasses the merit of our best deeds

Our daily focus must therefore be to embody God's Love and to follow the example of our Eternal Parent and love our fellow human beings most sincerely with kindness and compassion from the bottom of our Heart and soul. Once we know the value of True Love we will love God and man most willingly, it will be our daily joy to invest our Heart into profound relationships which allow Love to flow freely
