

There is New Hope for this world and every person living in it,

- (1) I take full responsibility for what happens to me based on my emotions and thoughts
- (2) We acknowledge that we are created out of Love and destined to develop a loving Heart
- (3) I open my Heart and mind to perceive the beauty of creation - made out of Love for me
- (4) We open our Hearts to feel God's precious Love reaching us through people and nature
- (5) I realize that my fellow human beings are indeed my brothers and sisters because we all are children of our Heavenly Parent, God, Allah or however we may call our Creator
- (6) We leave any kind of self-centered thinking behind in favour of experiencing the joy of living for the sake of others by sharing our Heart and Love generously with many people
- (7) I come to the conviction that it is impossible that God does not exist and help others to experience the many positive outcomes of leading a God-centred life filled with loving care
- (8) All people come to understand that loving relationships are the greatest treasure we can gain during our life here on earth, and which will further expand eternally in the next world
- (9) I am ready to clarify my thinking based on the fact that nothing is more important in life than becoming the embodiment of True Love and treating everybody with a loving Heart
- (10) Every person recognizes that he or she holds the key to happiness in their own hands
- (11) I feel down in the depth of my soul that everything becomes only valuable if it is done with a loving Heart and therefore cultivate relationships in an atmosphere of sincerely caring
- (12) We do not see ourselves as victims but take full responsibility for the needed changes
- (13) I liberate my Heart from any kinds of negative emotions, like resentments, by forgiving everybody who has hurt me and reconcile with all people with whom I had struggles
- (14) I make a new beginning by looking from this day forward at anything that happens in my life with the eyes of True Love and deal with any issue from the standpoint of Heart
- (15) We learn to love ourselves and others in the way God loves us as our Heavenly Parent
- (16) I understand in the depth of my soul that my dignity can be seen by the quality of Love I share with others and focus accordingly on showing a caring Heart to everybody I meet
- (17) If we move from being centered on the brain to focus on our Heart and the logic of Love
- (18) I am prepared to let go of my past by resolving all issues that burden my soul in order to be free to receive God's Love which reaches me through people as well as through nature
- (19) Every person strives to become one with our Creator and to pass on the precious Love experienced in this relationship to their environment, contributing in this way to a loving world
- (20) I know that true fulfilment is found by following the voice of my Heart and conscience
- (21) We unite in Heart as brothers and sisters of a worldwide Family, feeling responsible that every man and woman and all children can lead happy lives of heartfelt sharing of Love

This website was established to provide New Hope:

- (1) The Inner Heart deals with internal aspects of our Heart as the most important organ of our body including themes like the electromagnetic field produced by the human Heart and Chakras
- (2) In the section True Love you can read about the seemingly endless qualities of this precious value which is the foundation for the creation of the universe and the purpose of all existence
- (3) Addressing the theme A Loving Heart is intended to stimulate deep reflection on the task of developing one's ability to love on ever deeper levels of investing our Heart unconditionally
- (4) Under the overall theme New Worldview, some scientific discoveries of recent decades are briefly introduced, which have opened the door for achieving unity between the areas of religion and science, as well as the challenge to achieve this goal
- (5) A Bright Future is what we all are hoping for. It will become a reality as soon as we take full responsibility for solving existing problems as outlined in this and other sections of this website
- (6) Sacred Geometry is the study of the blueprint of creation and the genesis of all forms. It is an ancient science that explores the energy patterns that create and unify all things. This part contains also explanations about our Creator and how religions refer to the Ultimate Reality
- (7) The section The Miracle of Love gives some insights into the miraculous way new life is formed in the mother's womb and about aspects of Love which let our heart feel alive
- (8) The Solution to the fundamental questions of life can only be found when we search for a deeper understanding of the nature of our Creator, which is pursued in this part of the website
- (9) Light and Water are elements essentially required in order for life to exist. This section deals also with the foundation necessary for our spiritual life, a personal relationship of Love with God
- (10) In the section Conclusions, various issues are addressed which need to be considered in order to bring about positive changes in the world because our goal must be lasting solutions
- (11) The section Your Inspiration is waiting for your input concerning the overall theme of Heart and True Love to which this website is dedicated; there is much we can learn from each other
- (12) Concerning the many Aspects of Love one could probably talk about that endlessly. In this section you find a few thoughts to stimulate further reflection on this important theme
- (13) True Love Cares is a core part of this website as it is important that we deeply realize in which way we can bring about positive changes based on a Heart full of unconditional Love
- (14) The section called The Essence is intended to give an overview about inner and external aspects of this Home in the worldwide web which was created as a resource for a profound understanding of what Heart and True Love mean and how we can lead a life that is centered on these highest values which have their origin in our Loving Creator whose children we are
- (15) Under the theme The Natural World you find some basic points regarding the content of this website based on the understanding that nature teaches us a lot about its great Designer
- (16) Please use the Guestbook to share about your impressions after having become familiar with the content of this website and to also share your insights on how you feel about True Love
