This is because True Love in the ethical relationship of the family is an absolute love - agape love - which emits heart-warming joy to all mankind just as the sun emits its light to all creation

And this love alone has never changed through history whether in the East or West and it will remain unchangeable in the future

True Love has the vertical axis in relation to its origin and the horizontal axis referring to our actions which are motivated by Love for the sake of others

Everyone must follow the path leading to True Love if they expect to find it

True Love does not flow randomly; it is not sporadic, influenced by the ups and downs of emotion. True Love follows a definite pattern. Three principles guide True Love: purpose, direction and order

True Love has an unchanging direction and operates to produce specific results, such as peace, happiness, and goodness

To say that True Love has a certain purpose, direction, and order has several implications. Our purpose in life becomes the quest for True Love, but no individual can achieve it alone; each person needs a companion in order to fulfill love's purpose

Furthermore, whoever wants to be a part of True Love needs to be heading in the same direction as True Love and live by its standard without making any false compromises

If someone just wants to be left alone and not bothered by others, he can never attain True Love - even if he seeks it - because he is going against the order, purpose and direction of Love

Self-centred individualistic thoughts and actions will prevent a person from finding True Love

Every being must head in the direction of True Love in order to fulfill its purpose

While we are dwelling on earth we need True Love, and after we go to the spirit world we will need it there as well. Do only human beings seek True Love? Animals, vegetables and minerals all seek True Love; they all seek the person who has True Love and welcome the personification of True Love

Holy, pure and true Love is never lost as it is connected with eternity

What is True Love? It is the Love that cares for its enemy; it gives the ultimate gift and then forgets what was given and gladly invests again more Love

We need people who strive toward the attainment of True Love and then declare to the world, 'Nobody under the sun can take away even one iota of this True Love because True Love is the strongest force in the universe, the root of all creation

In the original world where every creature and being is activated in search of pure, true Love the most incredibly sensitive and sophisticated yet pure dialogue of True Love is always going on

True Love 35

The essence of True Love is to give, to live for the sake of others and for the sake of the whole

True Love gives joyfully and always wants to invest more so that more joy and fulfillment is experienced

We find True Love in the joyful and loving Heart of a mother who cradles her baby in her arms and nurses it at her breast

True Love is sacrificial Love, as with a filial son or daughter who gains great satisfaction in helping his/her parents, wanting to give back in gratitude for what was received unconditionally

God created the universe out of an absolute, unique, unchanging and eternal Love, investing everything without any expectation or condition of receiving something in return

True Love is the root and wellspring of the universe, bound to be present in all existence, most of all and to the deepest extent in the Heart of men and women as highest creation

On our path to True Love it is obligatory that we become unchanging people whose Heart will never be compromised to practice anything less than this precious standard

When we have that kind of eternal Heart for Heaven, our path will lead us to True Love, to Love that is all in all

What is the holiest thing in the world? It is True Love. Nothing is more precious than this timeless realm where deepest fulfillment is found

True Love 36

What is True Love? It is God's Love. Therefore we need to develop a Heart to Heart relationship with our Creator in order to learn about the deepest aspects of True Love

True Love begins from our Heavenly Parent who longs that all people walk the path of True Love

When God exercised His power as the Creator, He created everything centered on True Love

Our Heavenly Father/Mother relates to everything with True Love. Therefore, it is also our aspiration to relate to everything in True Love

Ultimately, the original source of True Love is not in human beings, but in the First Causal Being, who is absolute and unchanging

That is why a family of True Love is a God-centered family. Such families are the basic units for the realization of the ideal in human society

Beginning with families that realize the highest ideal of absolute Love, True Love can expand to the nation and the world

The world of unity that is formed in families that perfect and complete Love will surely expand to bring about God's promise of an ideal world of eternal happiness

True Love is not seen when it is easy to love. True Love becomes evident when you love someone even though it is difficult with an unconditional Heart

As sons and daughters we are the object partners of the absolute God, who created us out of absolute Love for the sake of the greatest pleasure and fulfillment for all

True Love is Love that continues forever. It is Love that does not change, whether in spring, summer, autumn, or winter

True Love does not diminish when a person is a child, middle-aged, a senior citizen, or has passed on to the eternal spirit world. True Love is unchanging and eternal

More than any other kind of changes we need a True Love revolution with the goal of liberating people to become free in Heart to love in a selfless way

Leading a True Love life is not easy but when we follow the voice of our innermost Heart we will surely arrive at this extremely valuable goal of embodying the highest standard of selflessness

True Love is our only hope; so all our senses need to be fully active for the sake of allowing it to become a reality

When God looks at us, He/She looks through the eyes of True Love. We should do the same as we relate to one another

True Love 37

What is the purpose of creation? It is the consummation of True Love. That is the essence of our purpose as beings endowed with a precious Heart

Once you have matured in Heart you naturally want to do anything for the sake of True Love, you will even willingly suffer for your beloved

When True Love knocks at the door of the human body, what happens? All the billions of cells are immediately activated and ecstatic

Nothing can conquer True Love, not even death. Everything wants to be under its dominion as it cares for all, concerned about the greatest benefit and fulfilment for all

When we call anything true, we mean it is consistent; we mean it has been the same from beginning to end. People seek that genuine quality in everything. We look for what is true within ourselves – and we will find True Love

Everyone, even the most famous and respected people, must follow the path leading to True Love if they expect to find it

True Love does not flow randomly; it is not sporadic, influenced by the ups and downs of emotion. True Love follows a definite pattern

Three principles guide True Love: purpose, direction and order. True Love has an unchanging direction and operates to produce specific results, such as peace, happiness, and goodness

To say that True Love has a certain purpose, direction, and order has several implications which we need to understand deeply

Our purpose in life becomes the quest for True Love, but no individual can achieve it alone; each person needs a companion in order to fulfill Love's purpose

Whoever wants to be a part of True Love needs to be heading in the same direction as True Love and become one with this precious goal

If someone just wants to be left alone and not bothered by others, he can never attain True Love - even if he seeks it - because he is going against the order, purpose and direction of Love. Individualistic thoughts and actions will prevent a person from finding True Love

While we are dwelling on earth we need True Love, and after we go to the spirit world we will need it there as well because we are created to live in the realm of True Love eternally

Do only human beings seek True Love? Animals, vegetables and minerals all seek True Love; they all seek the person who has True Love, all welcome the personification of True Love. They want to cling to and follow whoever embodies True Love

All things - animal, vegetable or mineral - would like to live harmoniously with the person who has True Love. Considering all this, what is the greatest treasure here on earth and in the cosmic universe? Naturally it is True Love

Not only True Love but also the man and woman who embody True Love are the greatest treasure. They are the most valuable beings in the entire cosmic universe. Such a man and woman can step forward confidently and ask others to follow them, because the direction in which they are heading is guaranteed to be correct

Because we cannot see True Love the only way to confirm the presence of True Love is through experience. You cannot tell whether someone has True Love until you have gone through difficult times together

In reflecting back on your time together, you can determine whether a person exhibited True Love or not. To verify True Love it is necessary to go through a period of trial or testing

A person of True Love is dependable, regardless of his position; wherever he may be, he acts in a consistent manner and heads in the proper direction

A broad mind is born out of True Love – in the Heart of a person who is dedicated to loving many people

Every person can draw True Love; the power to attract True Love is in every person, but more importantly every human being needs to learn to become the embodiment of True Love

Whatever relationship we develop, we should always enter into a relationship of True Love and nothing less

A family may be facing poverty and hardship and everyone may be hungry and cold, but as long as the parents demonstrate warm, true Love for each other, the children will grow up satisfied

Even if we have to make sacrifices for the sake of advancing the good of the whole, we should be willing so that we could reach the True Love goal as quickly as possible

That is the spirit of sacrifice for the higher attainment of True Love. Once we have developed our Heart we will gladly invest for this precious goal

Every person is a unique embodiment of True Love based on the investment of Heart from the side of our Heavenly Parent along with the Love of their father and mother

Love is infinite, for that reason True Love is giving Love with the desire never to stop investing

If you practice to give and to give again without asking for any Love return and still you want to give and go on for eternity and you will never run out of Love because Love is multiplied when it is being shared

When you live with this 100% commitment of True Love you enjoy true freedom within True Love

The power of True Love activates all our senses so that our whole being is completely awakened and electrified. In other words, the human spirit and body truly respond to that certain element which is Love

When we have True Love, we want to bring Joy to others even if it means working throughout the night. For the sake of your loved ones, your original mind wants you to overcome your limitations of time and energy

There is an order in man's body and each limb and organ always is in a certain place. Likewise, when True Love appears, those who are closest to being 'true' should go there first

When we are in love with True Love others will yearn to be with us because they also long for True Love

True Love is totally flexible; it fits the needs of every individual perfectly. None of the billions of people in the world will be dissatisfied with the presence of True Love; each person will be fulfilled

When True Love touches you, it ignites you, it moves you to become active and to share the experience with others, to convey it in order to multiply this precious content

True Love requires living for the sake of others on every level – as brothers and sisters, as husband and wife, as parents and children – but this is not a duty that has to be done but it is a joy to share one's Heart on all these levels
