

To recognize that God is Love is one of the most important realizations one can ever make in the course of one's life. Hand in hand with this insight it is decisive to realize that this statement is not only true for our Creator but it applies also to every human being: The essence of our existence lies in manifesting True Love

The core message of Christianity may be put into these three words: God is Love. Jesus emphasized that his followers should be recognized by their Love for one another

When this fundamental teaching of Christianity is put into practice then the way is open for all the different denominations to come together in heartfelt unity on their common basis of emphasizing Love for God and Jesus

As soon as this long awaited foundation is established other religious groups will naturally follow this example by going beyond walls of separation in their respective faith tradition based on the realization that it is indeed more important to unite with others than to insist on one's own dogmas

Achieving unity among Christians is the basis for true unification among all religious people. Once heartfelt oneness is achieved among those who believe in Jesus Christ, other religions will also make efforts to overcome divisions existing in their respective faiths

Because Christianity teaches the highest standard of sacrificial Love, which includes even loving one's enemy and making them your friend, it is in a key position for peace and understanding to be achieved on the worldwide level

The goal is that all people of faith understand that True Love is the ultimate standard which must be applied in every aspect of life so that in this way any barriers between religions are overcome and all believers embrace each other with heartfelt compassion and deep mutual understanding, welcoming differences as we are all unique sons and daughters of our Common Parent

On the foundation of the practitioners of the various religions coming together in heartfelt sharing with one another, enriching each other's lives and inspiring one another towards a deeper Love for God, enough power will be generated in their Hearts to welcome and embrace all the different people of this world regardless of race, culture, belief or no belief, the power of Love sweeps aside all barriers and divides among people

In this way the ideal of a loving world for which people have longed for throughout history will be substantially realized and peace will reign in the Hearts of all men and women

The Kingdom of Heaven, a loving world, is not only at hand but it will actually be realized in our midst, wherever people have developed deep Heart to Heart relationships centered on True Love

Just as our Creator is a Loving Being it is obvious that we are to reach the level where we can say with conviction, 'I am Love. I live for the sake of others with a deeply caring Heart.' In this way a world of True Love will be established in our time
